AVOID ENGLISH BLUNDERS

The British prime minister has given some good advice to America regarding blunders committed by Great Britain in the early stages of the war. He said of the English: "We are a slow people—slow and blundering. But we get there. We have been in the business for nearly three years. We have made, as we generally do, every blunder. May I respectfully request that you study our blunders, so as to begin where we are now, not where we were three years ago?"

The British are getting there now, but the blunders of which Lloyd George speaks cost Great Britain untild lives, limitless treasure, vast suffering. The greatest of the British blunders was attempted dependence on the volunteer system for raising their armies.

The executive departments of our government, under direction of the president, are seeking precise information from British and French officials that will throw light on what courses to avoid.

But our legislative department, namely, congress, gave evidence of proceeding along its own preconceived prejudices, without giving heed to that the British experience so clearly teaches. There was insistence by a strong element that trial should first be had of the voluntary system, and if it should be found that the army desired could not be raised by that plan, then there was willingness to resort to the selective draft.

This is precisely what parliament did at the outset of the war. There was an obstinate British insistence on meeting the trained legions of Germany with a volunteer army. Kitchner undertook to raise, drill and equip it.

There followed the amazing campaign for recruits, wherein every possible species of coercion was resorted to. Slackers were denounced and ostracized. White feathers were pinned on them in public by women and girls. Speeches were made, red fire was burned, from every blank wall was the appeal; "Your country needs you."

Notwithstanding the greatest campaign for volunteers ever made in any country, and notwithstanding the raids of the Germans on the British coast and the dropping of bombs on many of the inland cities, including London, it gradually dawned upon the British consciousness that conscription alone would provide the army that must be had if the British nation was to be saved from destruction. Then parliament capitulated and a law was passed which put the burden squarely and fairly where it belongs—on all citizens fit for service.

There are two great defects in any volunteer system of enlistment: First, it fails in a great emergency to provide enough men for the needs of the country; second, it sends away all the best young men who are fit, and it leaves at home the weak spirited, the slackers and the dodgers and the secret sympathizers with the enemy and the selfish pacifists who usually are cowards, ready, however, in the name of Christ, to mob a single unarmed man who is advocating war in a just cause.

Our own civil war revealed the defects in the volunteer system. The government had to resort to the draft and the bounty to get men enough to enable the north to win over the south where the draft was employed from the beginning.

Let us take Lloyd George's advice. Let us avoid the blunders which cost so much of England's blood and treasure. Let us begin the formation of our army right and continue it right. Let us form the greatest democratic army, in which there is equal service for all, just as the blessings of our institutions are showered on all equally. Let those who are fit be sent to fight, whether they want to or not, just as those who have the wealth are taxed for the support of the government, whether they are willing to pay taxes or not.

AN UNEXPLORED EMPIRE

Canada is looking toward the coming of peace as marking the beginning of an era of development far greater than the Dominion has ever yet seen. The railroad which was planned to shorten the wheat routs to Liverpool by a thousand miles will be completed with all possible speed and this road will have the double purpose of also making possible the development and settlement of the Hudson Bay country.

There an area of 75,000 square miles remains between Ungava and Hudson bay which has not been explored in any definite way. Of the possibilities held by this vast stretch no man can now speak with authority, but it is believed fully possible that it will be opened up and cultivated. So many parts of the earth's surface which have so long been held unfit for human habitation have proved capable of subjection to the will and ingenuity of man, that there now seems little reason for believing that the Hudson bay country may not be tamed and cultivated for the support of mankind also.

Pulse Brothers have the right idea to reduce the high cost of living. On the 15th instant they will handle their store on the "grociteria" plan. In other words you go into the store buy what you want and carry it home, thus doing away with the expensive delivery system. Other features about the new method is that you gather up your own purchases from wrapped parcels—there are no clerks to wait on you. The expense of clerk hire is also obviated. Wonder somebody has not thought of this before.

In view of the fact that the poor people of the nation will for the most part occupy the various fighting lines and furnish food for enemy cannon, it is not at all unreasonable for the rich people of the United States to pay the bulk of the war expense. That seems to be the idea of the federal government and that it is the correct one there are few who will deny. If the poor are to do the actual fighting it is nothing more than right for the rich to pay the freight.

The German effort to make a separate peace with Russia has failed, and now a drive is to be made against the heart of the Russian nation in the hope of crushing the army while agitators are discussing politics.

The man who readily recognizes the good qualities of others is never without them himself.

Carranza insists Mexico is neutral. Rush an army to the border!

BIFFS, BUNTS AND BOBBLES FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE BUSH LEAGUE

MARTINEZ LOSES.

Martinez lost a 2 to 1 game to Benicia Sunday before a fairly large crowd. Jerry Lawlor of Oakland umpired the game and came home without much damage being inflicted. He is able to walk this morning, showing that an umpire's job is not as black as painted. Nealon threw for the Martinez club with Chalrey Downey catching. Next Sunday, Martinez takes on the Concord team.

TOO BAD SLIM.

"Slim" Nelson, former Richmond player, former Oak, former Northwest leaguer and former pitcher worked on the mound for the Bay View Veterans Sunday against the Alameda Elks but could not do anything.

NEWKIRK WINS.

Alameda, decked in their new uniforms, took a three to two game from the Goldberg-Bowen team of San Francisco Sunday at Lincoln park. The contest was a closely played one, both pitchers Newkirk and Jacobsen hurling a four hit game.

"Deacon Van Buren of Sacramento and for several seasons a member of the Sacramento Coast League Club and now manager of the Gridley team in the Trolley League, is confined at the White Hospital, where yesterday he underwent an operation. Today his condition is reported favorable and he is expected to be out again in about ten days. He has been ill at Gridley for the past three weeks, but was with the team at Oroville last Sunday.

President Murphy of the Trolley League announces the following umpire appointments for the coming Sunday games in the valley games Shepardson at Sacramento; Henley at Colusa and Loverich at Chico. Oroville plays in Sacramento. Gridley in Colusa and Marysville at Chico.

For want of some other appelation, they'll have to be termed at present the "Used-to-wasers." Anyhow regardless of their title they're going to play the Martinez baseball team at the Smith street grounds in Martinez next Sunday afternoon. Included in the aggregation of stars of other days are "Chuck" Wilcox Vanni, Gross, maybe Tony Reggiardo and enough others to make a real ball club and Tony says they'll make the other youngsters think they are somebody before the ninth inning ends.

'BACHELOR DINNER' IS FEATURE ACT AT PANTAGES

Unique among vaudeville offerings the "Bachelor Dinner" was the mecca of great crowds at the Oakland Pantages last night, when it scintillated in a brilliant galaxy of star vaudeville features. "The Bachelor Dinner," the snappiest comedy vaudeville special New York ever saw, and one that was only brought West after a phenomenal run there, is the most original affairs the Metropolis of theaterdom has ever seen. From the pen of A. Seymour Brown, the famous song writer, it combined his best song writing skill with his brilliant wit. The story is of a gay bachelor dinner, a farewell to a youth about to wed. The party invites a few girls—and one of them invited the father of the girl the hero is about to wed. Follows trouble. Then comes mama-in-law-to-be and the girl, seeking his aid to find father, who in the meantime has fallen into the bath-tub. The denoucment is one of the cleverest surprises ever sprung on vaudeville.

Patricola, queen of the cabarets of New York, is the second big feature of the great bill. Patricola is undoubtedly the greatest "Single" wovan in vaudeville from the point of entertainment. She was the idol of the great cabarets in New York, where she received thousands of dollars for entertaining diners at night. Then Alexander Pantages invaded New York, and lured, the famous star to the vaudeville stage. Her wonderful personality is not alone her attractiveness. She is a finished artist. We have seen Nonettes and others—but there is only one Patricola. She cannot be described. She is Patricola. To see is to worship.

DIAMOND NOTES

HIT SAFELY.

Lane and Murphy each got three hits for Oakland against the Beavers yesterday.

SCHINKLE WINS.

Schinkle of Richmond won against the Vernon Tigers for Blankenship's Bees. It was all off when Decannier of the Bees blew up in the third.

THOLANDER STRONG.

If "Iron Man" Tholander of the Sperry Flour team of Vallejo keeps up his winning streak nothing short of a miracle lineup can stop him. Tholander pitches in this city next Sunday against the Richmond Elks.

PREPAREDNESS.

Manager Dietrich, of the Elks believes in "Preparedness." Next Sunday when the Elks go against the fast Sperry Flour team of Vallejo he will have two fast twirlers on the job. If Friene works, Hollis will be held in reserve and vice versa.

CLIFF HERE.

Cliff Cleek, former Elk player will be here Sunday with the Sperry Flour team. Cleek has been catching a fast game for the Vallejo team since joining that aggregation.

Trading Stamps, We Give American

NOTICE

TO AMERICAN STAMP COLLECTORS AND MERCHANTS GIVING THEM:

The Anti-Trading Stamp Bill, recently passed by the Legislature, if signed by the Governor, will not go into effect until ONE YEAR AFTER JULY 1st.

Had the Legislature known how much good American Trading Stamps have done for thousands and thousands of housewives in California, and how this wonderful advertising medium has enabled hundreds of merchants to build up their business, they surely would not have passed this Bill, NO MATTER HOW MUCH PRESSURE WAS BROUGHT TO BEAR BY STORES WHO DO NOT GIVE TRADING STAMPS.

This bill does not, however, become a law until signed by the Governor, and we sincerely hope that he will consider carefully before depriving the thousands of economical housewives of the great benefit Trading Stamps give them and deprive the merchants who desire to use this legitimate means of advertising their businesses.

AMERICAN TRADING STAMPS will always be good! Continue to save them! Each stamp is guaranteed and will always be redeemed at its full value.

CHINESE QUARTETTE AT OAKLAND ORPHEUM

There are thrills a-plenty, and enjoyment of the keenest sort for the crowds at the Oakland Orpheum this week, as the result of performances which have included brilliant dramatic bits, splendid musical numbers, and some of the finest comedy ever put forward on the Orpheum Stage. The new bill, that will be presented today will more than keep up the unusual brilliant record of the past.

There is a new star in the vaudeville firmament, and it twinkles as brightly as the brightest of any of its companions in the stageland sky. The orbit in question is Cecil Cunningham, a statuesque young woman of fine appearance, splendid voice and rare ability. Jean Havez, who specializes in good songs, has provided Miss Cunningham with her present repertoire. It consists of four descriptive numbers and each one is a gem. The lyrics are clever, and there is a pleasing swing to the music, and Miss Cunningham is a past master of "putting them over."

One doesn't expect consistency of two comedians "working in one." As long as they are funny, they have fulfilled their mission. This is not the principle of Herbert Ashley and Jack Allman, however. They believe that even a duologue can be even funnier with a plot than without one, and so their little act, "The Dawn of a New Day," possesses that decidedly unusual quantity in acts of this kind—a consistent story.

China is one of the poorest producers of theatrical material in the world. The United States and Australia are the two greatest circus creating countries on the face of the earth and Europe leads in the production of vaudeville novelties. Therefore an announcement more or less extraordinary is the coming of the Chung Hwa Comedy Four, the only Chinese quartette in the world. They are all good singers, and the quartette numbers are better in harmony than any American "fours" permeating vaudeville.

SCULPTOR STORY AT RICHMOND TONIGHT

Picture to yourself the agony of mind of the sculptor who made the statue of Pauline Frederick for use in her latest Famous Players-Paramount starring vehicle, "Sapho" at the Richmond T. & D. Theater today, when they took his work away from him and gave it into the hands of the ruthless Frank Losee, who was taking the part of the sculptor in the photoplay! The latter brandished his tools about the precious masterpiece, for which Miss Frederick had posed for hours, in a manner extremely alarming to the real sculptor.

According to Wallace Reid, the scenario writers sit up nights devising new plays to have him injured and he states that he believes there was a conspiracy against him in the Lasky Production "The Prison Without Walls" in which he will be seen at the Richmond T. & D. theater Friday and Saturday with Myrtle Stedman and supported by a cast of unusual excellence.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers —Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.
